Volunteering at the The Lord's Diner

If you're looking for an opportunity for more community engagement or to give back to those in need, consider joining us to serve at The Lord's Diner every first Tuesday of the month. There are three shifts available starting on 8th and Pine Street from 3-3:45 pm. The second shift is located at the Knights of Columbus Hall on 11th and Joplin from 4:15-5:15 pm. The last stop is at Deramus Park, 16th and Michigan Street, from 5:30-6 pm. If you are interested in signing up for our scheduled night please contact Patti Shockley via phone call at 620-404-9090 and leave a message.

Any further volunteering questions can be sent to Anna Oberle at anna@thelordsdiner.org.

Lost and Found

A parishioner has been missing her dark blue prescription sunglasses. If you happen to find them, please contact the Parish Office.

We have a glass pie dish from the donated pies for the Crawford County Fair in the Parish Office.

A Star is Born

Fr. Josh gilds a star into the dome of the church. Gilding is defined as the process of applying gold leaf to an object made with other materials.
