Cross to the Other Side

Jb 38:1, 8-11 / 2 Cor 5:14-17 / Mk 4:35-41

In today's Gospel, Jesus and his disciples are overwhelmed by the crowds of people, and Jesus utters these very important words: "Let us cross to the other side." He invites His disciples to sail across the sea where it is quiet and peaceful, where they can rest and pray together. How often does Jesus invite you to "cross to the other side"? Life is busy and discipleship can be hard. Like these first disciples, you may find yourself battered by the chaos around you. Where does Jesus call you to retreat with Him? Perhaps it is the Adoration Chapel or the quiet, empty sanctuary over your lunch hour? Is He waiting for you in a shady spot on a sunny afternoon, or in the solitude of your favorite fishing pond? Maybe He is simply asking you to put your phone down in the evening and spend some time in prayer? There are countless ways Jesus is calling you to rest in Him – are you listening?? Allow Him to renew you in your discipleship.

Religious Freedom Week

Religious Freedom Week will be celebrated in dioceses nationwide from June 22 to June 29. Throughout the week we will focus on the importance of preserving the essential right of religious freedom, both now and in the future, for Catholics and all people of faith. This year's theme is "Solidarity in Freedom". Please visit www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek to view the "Pray-Reflect-Act" pages for each day on various religious liberty topics, accompanied by daily prayer intentions. Bishop Kemme will conclude the week with a Mass on June 29th at 6pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

Farewell Party for Father PJ will be on Sunday, June 27th at 1pm at Parish Hall. Please come and help us celebrate Father PJ and give him a proper send off to his new parish, St. James in Augusta, Kansas. This will be a come and go event, no RSVP required. We invite the entire community to stop by and wish Father well! Let's pray for Father PJ and all priests in their new assignments.

Reminder! There will be no daily Mass between Monday, June 28th to Friday, July 2nd. Father PJ will be transitioning to his next parish, and Father Josh will be transitioning in!
