“FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES” The cleansing of the temple shows Jesus in a moment of righteous anger — not something we see very often. In this passage, Jesus is angry at the misuse of the temple area. He sees people bartering over mere pennies, animals being bought for sacrifice, and people milling about in a space designated for prayer and worship. This all seems foreign to us, as our churches do not resemble this chaotic scene. Or do they? Are we good stewards of our space? Jesus was angered at the lack of reverence in His Father’s house. Do we struggle with this in our own church? Do we approach the sanctuary in awe, knowing that God is present there? Do we pray in earnest, or mumble our way through the Mass? Jesus taught that animal sacrifices were not necessary, yet the people continued to try and outdo each other with their offerings. What about your offering? Is it a gift of self, coming from a loving heart? Jesus wanted the temple to be a place of worship for ALL people, yet there were divisions that segregated particular groups to particular areas. Is there anything about your parish that keeps the seeking stranger from finding God? Is it a welcoming place? Are YOU welcoming? We must not be so arrogant as to think we are better than those we read about in today’s gospel. Instead, we should strive to be perfect stewards of the time and space that God has given us.

Kapaun’s Men will begin Friday, March 5th at 6:15 am in the church. If you are interested in signing up or would like more info, please call or email Father PJ.
