“FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES” In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus offers instruction on how his followers should go about the task of evangelizing others. He teaches that they should be meek and merciful peacemakers. They should be humble of heart and prepared for persecution. As the very first disciple, our Blessed Mother demonstrated these qualities. If we study the lives of the saints we honor this weekend, we will see those traits in them as well. What if we study our own lives? Will we find those traits in our own efforts in discipleship? Or does our pride cause us to stumble on our path to holiness? In the Beatitudes, Jesus has given us all the proper way of living — a way that will draw others in. Let us use our lives as Mary and the saints did...to point to Jesus on the cross!

Heavenly Father, please watch over our country as we enter in to this year’s election. Give us clear minds and clear hearts to choose the candidates that our country needs at this moment in our history. Watch over those candidates, give them your heart and your eyes to be able to serve the people of this great nation as you would have them serve. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Mass Volunteers: I will be sending out a Google sign up sheet for Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors only for the month of Nov. If you are able/willing to volunteer to do either, please let us know!
