Priesthood Sunday Thank You Fr. Josh!

Thank you for laying down your life for Christ and his Church, for giving up your life to help us get through ours. Thank you for your obedience, for showing us what it means to submit. Thank you for the gift of your celibacy, for giving up wife and children for your Bride the Church and your many children. Thank you for being on call 24 hours a day. Thank you for showing up in the hospital room 20 minutes after he called the parish for prayers. Thank you for your counsel. Thank you for your silence. Thank you for being there even if we hardly knew you. Thank you for loving us even when we take you for granted. Thank you for standing outside Mass every weekend shaking hands with people who don't bother to learn your name. Thank you for remembering my name. Thank you for smiling when babies scream in Mass. Thank you for loving our children. Thank you for refusing to be overcome by the world's hatred. Thank you for putting your collar back on and standing as a target. Thank you for the Sacraments. Thank you for confession. Thank you for sitting in an empty confessional for hours hoping someone will walk in to be reunited to God. Thank you for hearing my confession at 7 am because I couldn't be bothered to make it to church during scheduled confessions. Thank you for listening, for never judging. Thank you for reassuring us that there's nothing too big for God's mercy. Thank you for taking our shameful secrets to your grave. Thank you for hurting with us and hurting for us and wanting us in heaven so badly. Thank you for saying Mass every day. Thank you for bringing the Eucharist to the sick. Thank you for exposing the Blessed Sacrament for Adoration. Thank you for homilies that make us proud to be a Catholic. Thank you for homilies that remind us that the Mass is about the Eucharist, not the works of man. Thank you for consecrating the Eucharist so reverently. Thank you for the intensity of your worship and the love in your eyes when you look at your people and when you look at your God. Thank you for praying over us and praying with us and praying for us. Thank you for your private faithfulness to prayer, to the Office and the Mass, to your own confessions and rosaries and fasting. Thank you for all your blood, sweat and tears for becoming a volunteer remodeling contractor to provide us with a sturdy and beautiful church. Thank you for all the pillar of hospitality and formation that you have added to our parish. Thank you for preaching Christ to us, for bringing Christ to us, for being Christ to us. Thank you for following him, never knowing where he will lead you. Thank you for teaching us to trust, for teaching us to love, for teaching us to live. We appreciate how much you sacrifice for us and we are truly blessed here at Sacred Heart!

The Mission of My Life

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.

He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.

Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.

~ John Henry Newman

Life Chain - Sunday October 1st

The National Life Chain is the largest peaceful, prayerful, pro-life public witness in the world. More than 1,500 cities across the U.S. and Canada are expected to participate this year. You are invited to take part in our local Life Chain on Sunday, October 1st. This event will take place along 900-1000 blocks on Broadway in Pittsburg from 3:30 – 4:30 pm. Signs may be picked up at 9th and Broadway. You are welcome to bring a lawn chair. Please join us as we witness to the sanctity of life.

Respect Life Giving Tree

Throughout the month of October our Respect Life Committee will again place a "Giving Tree" in the back of the church. This project provides us an opportunity to show our support for mothers and babies in need. Each leaf on the tree names an item needed by Vie Medical Clinic, our local resource center. You are invited to take a leaf from the tree and purchase the requested item. You may bring your baby gift and place it in the tub provided or take it to the Parish Office during office hours. Our gift will then be donated to Vie Medical Clinic at the end of the month.
