Harvest House

Harvest House will meet Thursday September 14th at 11:30 am in the Bosco Center. Jim & Dianne Mitchell will present information about their Sunflower Travelers Club. This is a local travel club offering motorcoach tours originating from Frontenac, KS. They will share information about how the club was started, their previous trips and trips planned for the future. So, if you're a fellow travel enthusiast, don't miss their presentation as they explore the history, experiences, and future plans of the Sunflower Travelers Club.

Angels with Aprons

The Angels donned their Aprons last week for a family whose father was hospitalized at KUMC for burns to his face and hands. Many thanks to Janis Shaffer, Teri Kinyon, Nancy Evans and Lucinda Bonine for providing meals for them. They truly appreciated it.

Miners House donated by Sacred Heart Parishioners

Sunday, September 10th at 2:00 pm the Miners Hall Museum in Franklin is hosting a program "Salvaging the Past". It's being presented in conjunction with the quarterly exhibit "Preserving the Past – Coal Camps and Coal Company Houses" which is on display through September 23, 2023.

The program will be presented by Larry Fields. After the program, guests will have the opportunity to visit the newly restored Miners House which was donated by Sacred Heart Parishioners as well as the current exhibit. Call Susan at the office 620-347-4220 so we can prepare for adequate seating.
